Letters 1-50

By St Cyril

The Catholic University of America Press, United States, 1987. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 208 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .St. Cyril, Patriarch of Alexandria for thirty-two years in the first half of the fifth century, was a great champion of the faith against heresy; he opposed Novatianism, Neoplatonism, and Judaism. His principal struggle, however, was with Nestorius, Patriarch of Constantinople. Cyril vehemently defended the application of the word Theotokos, which means Godbearer , to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Nestorius, representative of the Antiochene theological school, held that the Blessed Virgin was the mother only of the humanity of Christ. This great Christological controversy and the Council of Ephesus that was convened in 431 to resolve it provide the subject matter for the entire collection of letters in this volume. Letter 1 is Cyril's response to a group of monks under his jurisdiction who ask for guidance in the Nestorian debate. His remarks take us straight to the heart of the matter: Therefore, I am amazed if some should question at all whether the Holy Virgin should be called the Mother of God. Through Letter 32 we are involved with the controversy...
