Excerpt: . COUNT GEOFFREY S CREST BY CAROLINE K. HERRICK ONE autumn morning of a far-away time, in the fair land of Anjou, Gaspard, the charcoal-burner, was setting out from his humble cottage in the forest. Farewell, good wife, he said cheerily. I am off for another day's work. Ay, another day's work, to earn but just another day's bread, replied the wife, sadly While we eat each day all the earnings of the day before, how shall we ever begin to save for Babette's marriage portion? The child is scarce six years old, said the father. She will not marry next week. Neither shall we begin to save for her next week, nor next year, nor ever, I fear, answered his wife. Have faith in God, said Gaspard. It may please Him to make us rich before the child is...

The ideal ebook i possibly study. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
