Description: Conditional Futurism introduces a new perspective of end-time theology (eschatology). The book holds to Christian futurism while integrating the Apocalypse of John with the conditional dynamics of prophecy taught in Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, and various other books throughout the Old Testament. The new paradigm concludes that the final antichrist (also known as the man of lawlessness, the beast, and the eighth king) may read the apocalyptic prophecy of his doom while deciding instead to repent of evil and turn to the Lord, which is a biblical option that would fulfill the divine purposes of the apocalypse. He well appreciates that biblical prophesies can have multiple fulfillments and takes this into account in his wide-ranging explorations. This is a perspective that warrants careful consideration and further exploration. Robin Parry author of The Evangelical Universalist James Goetz's thoughtful defense of Conditional Futurism should have great appeal to any evangelical who yearns for a wider hope....
