Did Adam have a bellybutton? Does the Bible really insist that God made a clay statue of a man, put His mouth to its nose, and then blew air into it? An investigation into the spelling of Ancient Hebrew words used in the Creation Story will not only reveal many things that have long been ignored by Christians and Jews, but will also dismiss or destroy many preconceived Judeo-Christian notions. In any language other than Ancient Hebrew, the Creation Story appears as a ridiculously naive, hopelessly silly, and utterly unbelievable, fairy tale. There are several valid reasons for this, however, and the eclectic Hebrew words of the Creation Story, along with the spelling of those words, can reveal to any interested soul the labor-intensive production and perfection of God's Great Pleasure, which is God's Great Vision and Masterpiece: Christ in us. Centered around the recorded words of the Hebrew Creation Story, this book addresses many previously unanswered (or unsatisfactorily answered) questions about seemingly illogical recorded biblical events, such as how it came to be that God made the Sun and stars a day after He made fruit trees and green plants. Also, why did Jesus of Nazareth declare that the stars shall fall from the sky? For, even as He already then knew, stars are millions of times more massive than the Earth. Each has its own destiny, and journeys along its own inertia and gravity enforced path. Many such mysteries are answered in this 3-part series. Always remember too, dear hearts, that every pertinent Bible question, or mystery, has its own answer buried beneath the trees of Eden (that is, hidden in...)
