Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from History of the First Congregational Society in Monterey, Mass: With Brief History of the Town and Account of the Anniversary Exercises October 10 and 11, 1900 At the annual meeting of the First Congregational church in Monterey, Mass., held December 15, 1899, it was resolved: That in view of the 150th anniversary of this church in October, 1900, the prudential committee be empowered to appoint a committee on church history. The prudential committee met and appointed the committee as follows: Rev. John Dooly, Marshall S. Bidwell, Henry W. Langdon, Miss Jessie A. Townsend. This Committee now places before the friends of the church the results of their labor and search. They are greatly indebted to former writers for information gleaned from The History of Berkshire County, printed in 1829, as also the history printed in 1885. They are also thankful to the many friends who, in response to request for historical reminiscences by the Committee of Arrangements for the anniversary exercises, have given many facts of rare interest not hitherto printed. This History before its final issue from the press was read to the congregation with a view to accuracy of facts, both as to dates and details. If the reader detects any inaccuracies the Committee will be thankful to receive information of such with a view to correction in the copies which will be sent to libraries and book depositaries. This History is given to the church of Jesus Christ in the hope and with the prayer that it may prove a stimulus to the faith and endeavor of those bodies of believers, who in the midst of adverse circumstances are striving to maintain...
