The Committee appointed under this resolution consisted of Mayor Francis Jewett, Aldermen Johns A. Goodwin and Hapgood Wright, Albert A. Haggott, President, and Charles Cowley, Charles W. Sleeper, and Edward E. Reed, members of the Common Council. Preparations were begun for the celebration, and the late Tappan Wentworth was selected as Orator of the Pay; but he was called away by death before the time arrived for what would have been to him, as well as to his audience, a most acceptable service. On account of the lack of time to complete the desired arrangements, the committee reported the commemoration to be inexpedient until another year.
