Paragon House Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 328 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.8in. It was the largest one-time amount 35 million anyone had ever donated to benefit a university. The Robertsons were specific about the way the money was to be used. It was intended to help Princetons Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs focus on sending its graduates into those areas of the federal government concerned with international relations. Wall Street Journal Doug Whites careful and fair study of the seminal Robertson Foundation endowment litigation against Princeton University should be read by all donors and donees. As a former head of the New York State Law Departments Charities Bureau, I know donors have to have both courage and resources to enforce their rights, especially against iconic donees. Fortunately, the Robertsons had both. Bill Josephson, Former head of the Charities Bureau, New York State Attorney Generals office.
